

North Dakota 101

For All New or Experienced Clergy, Church Workers, and their Spouses

Effective ministry in any setting requires a knowledge of the people and the place—the history, culture and realities of life in the area.

Whether you are new to the ministry or have years experience, North Dakota 101 is designed to help you gain a great understanding of North Dakota, its people, and life on the Northern Plains.

Speakers include representative from a variety of field and veterans pastors who will share their knowledge of North Dakota

This annual event is enlightening experience and opportunity to meet others form around the stat who face similar challenges.

The Rural Life Committee of the North Dakota Conference of Churches seeks to develop proactive, ecumenical responses to rural life issues affecting ND communities; promote a just and biblical stewardship of the land and its resources; providing continuing education for pastors and lay people; and foster community action in the church community at the local level
